Freedom! God speaks Light! He Allows! His Word: Gives Birth! Everything from out of Nothing! O' Holy One!

1. Genesis 1:1
In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.
2. Genesis 1:3
And God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light.
3. John 1:1
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
4. John 1:3-4
Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life and that life was the light of all mankind.
5. John 1:14
The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of Grace and Truth.
6. Genesis 1:4
God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness.
7. Genesis 2:2-3, Hebrews 4:1-13
By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day, he rested from all his work. Then God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done. Since the promise of entering his rest still stands let us be careful that none of you be found to have fallen short of it. For we also have had the good news proclaimed to us just as they did; but the message they heard was of no value to them because they did not share the faith of those who obeyed. Now we who have believed enter that rest just as God has said, "So I declared on oath in anger, 'They shall never enter my rest.'" And yet his works have been finished since the creation of the world. For somewhere he has spoken about the seventh day in these words: "On the seventh day God rested from all his works." And again in the passage above he says, "They shall never enter my rest." Therefore, since it's still remains for some to enter that rest, and since those who formerly had the good news proclaimed to them did not go in because of their disobedience. God again set a certain day calling it "Today." This he did when a long time later he spoke through David, as in the passage already quoted: "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts." For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken later about another day. There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God; for anyone who enters God's rest also rests from their works, just as God did from his. Let us therefore make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will perish by following their example of disobedience. For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.
